72005

Cruise: R/V F.V. HUNT Leg III

Chief scientist: John C. Hathaway and William Dillon, co-chief scientist

Scientific crew:

John Behrendt	USGS
Robert Oldale	"
Charles O'Hara	"
Frank Jennings	"
Junell Sayles	"
Christina Good	WHOI
Dolores Wilson	USGS
Robert White	"
David Davis

Dates: August 20 - 29, 1972

Type of work: Continuous seismic profiling using 40 in^3 air gun, 120 in^3 air gun, 40 in^3 air gun with pulse shaper, magnetometer, and sonobuoys.

Remarks: The purpose of the cruise was to make detailed surveys of possible sites for shallow drilling on the outer continental shelf. The areas covered were the northern and southern edges of Georges Bank, Physalis, Mytilus and Bear seamounts, and lines in transit to and from these area.

HUNT 72 III HATHAWAY/DILLON

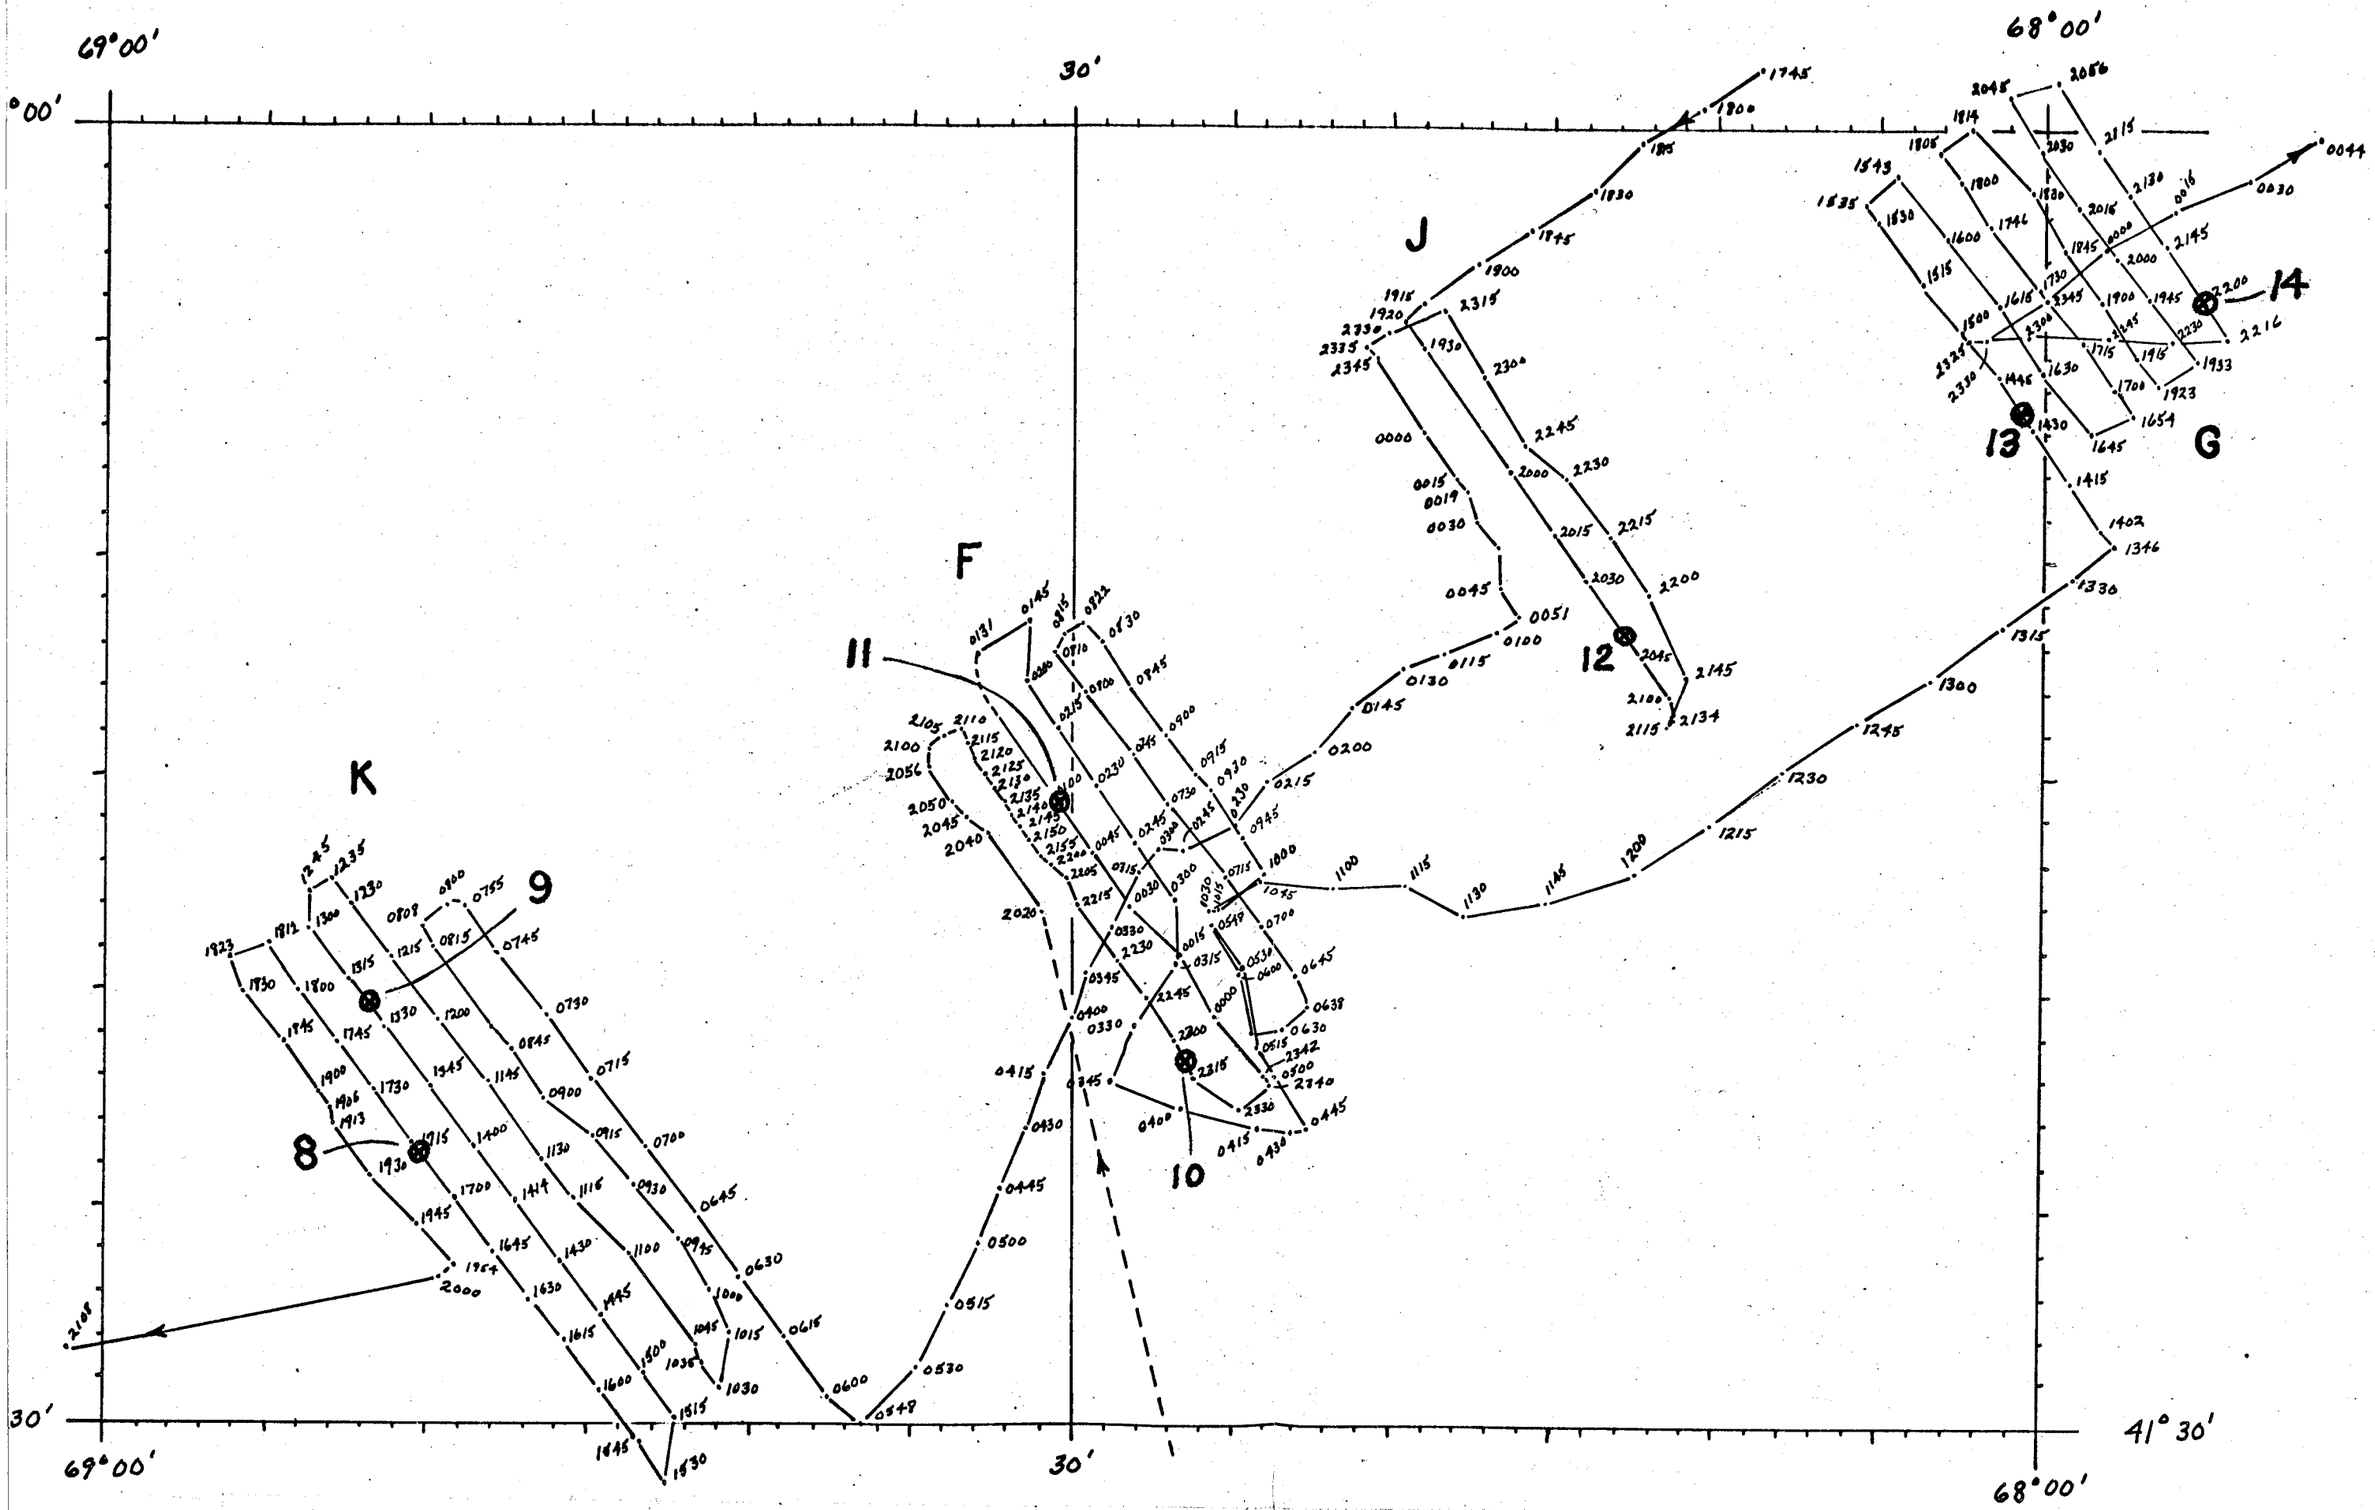

Figure 7.--Map showing track of Cruise III for areas F, G, J and K and proposed drilling sites 8-14. See figure 6 for general location.

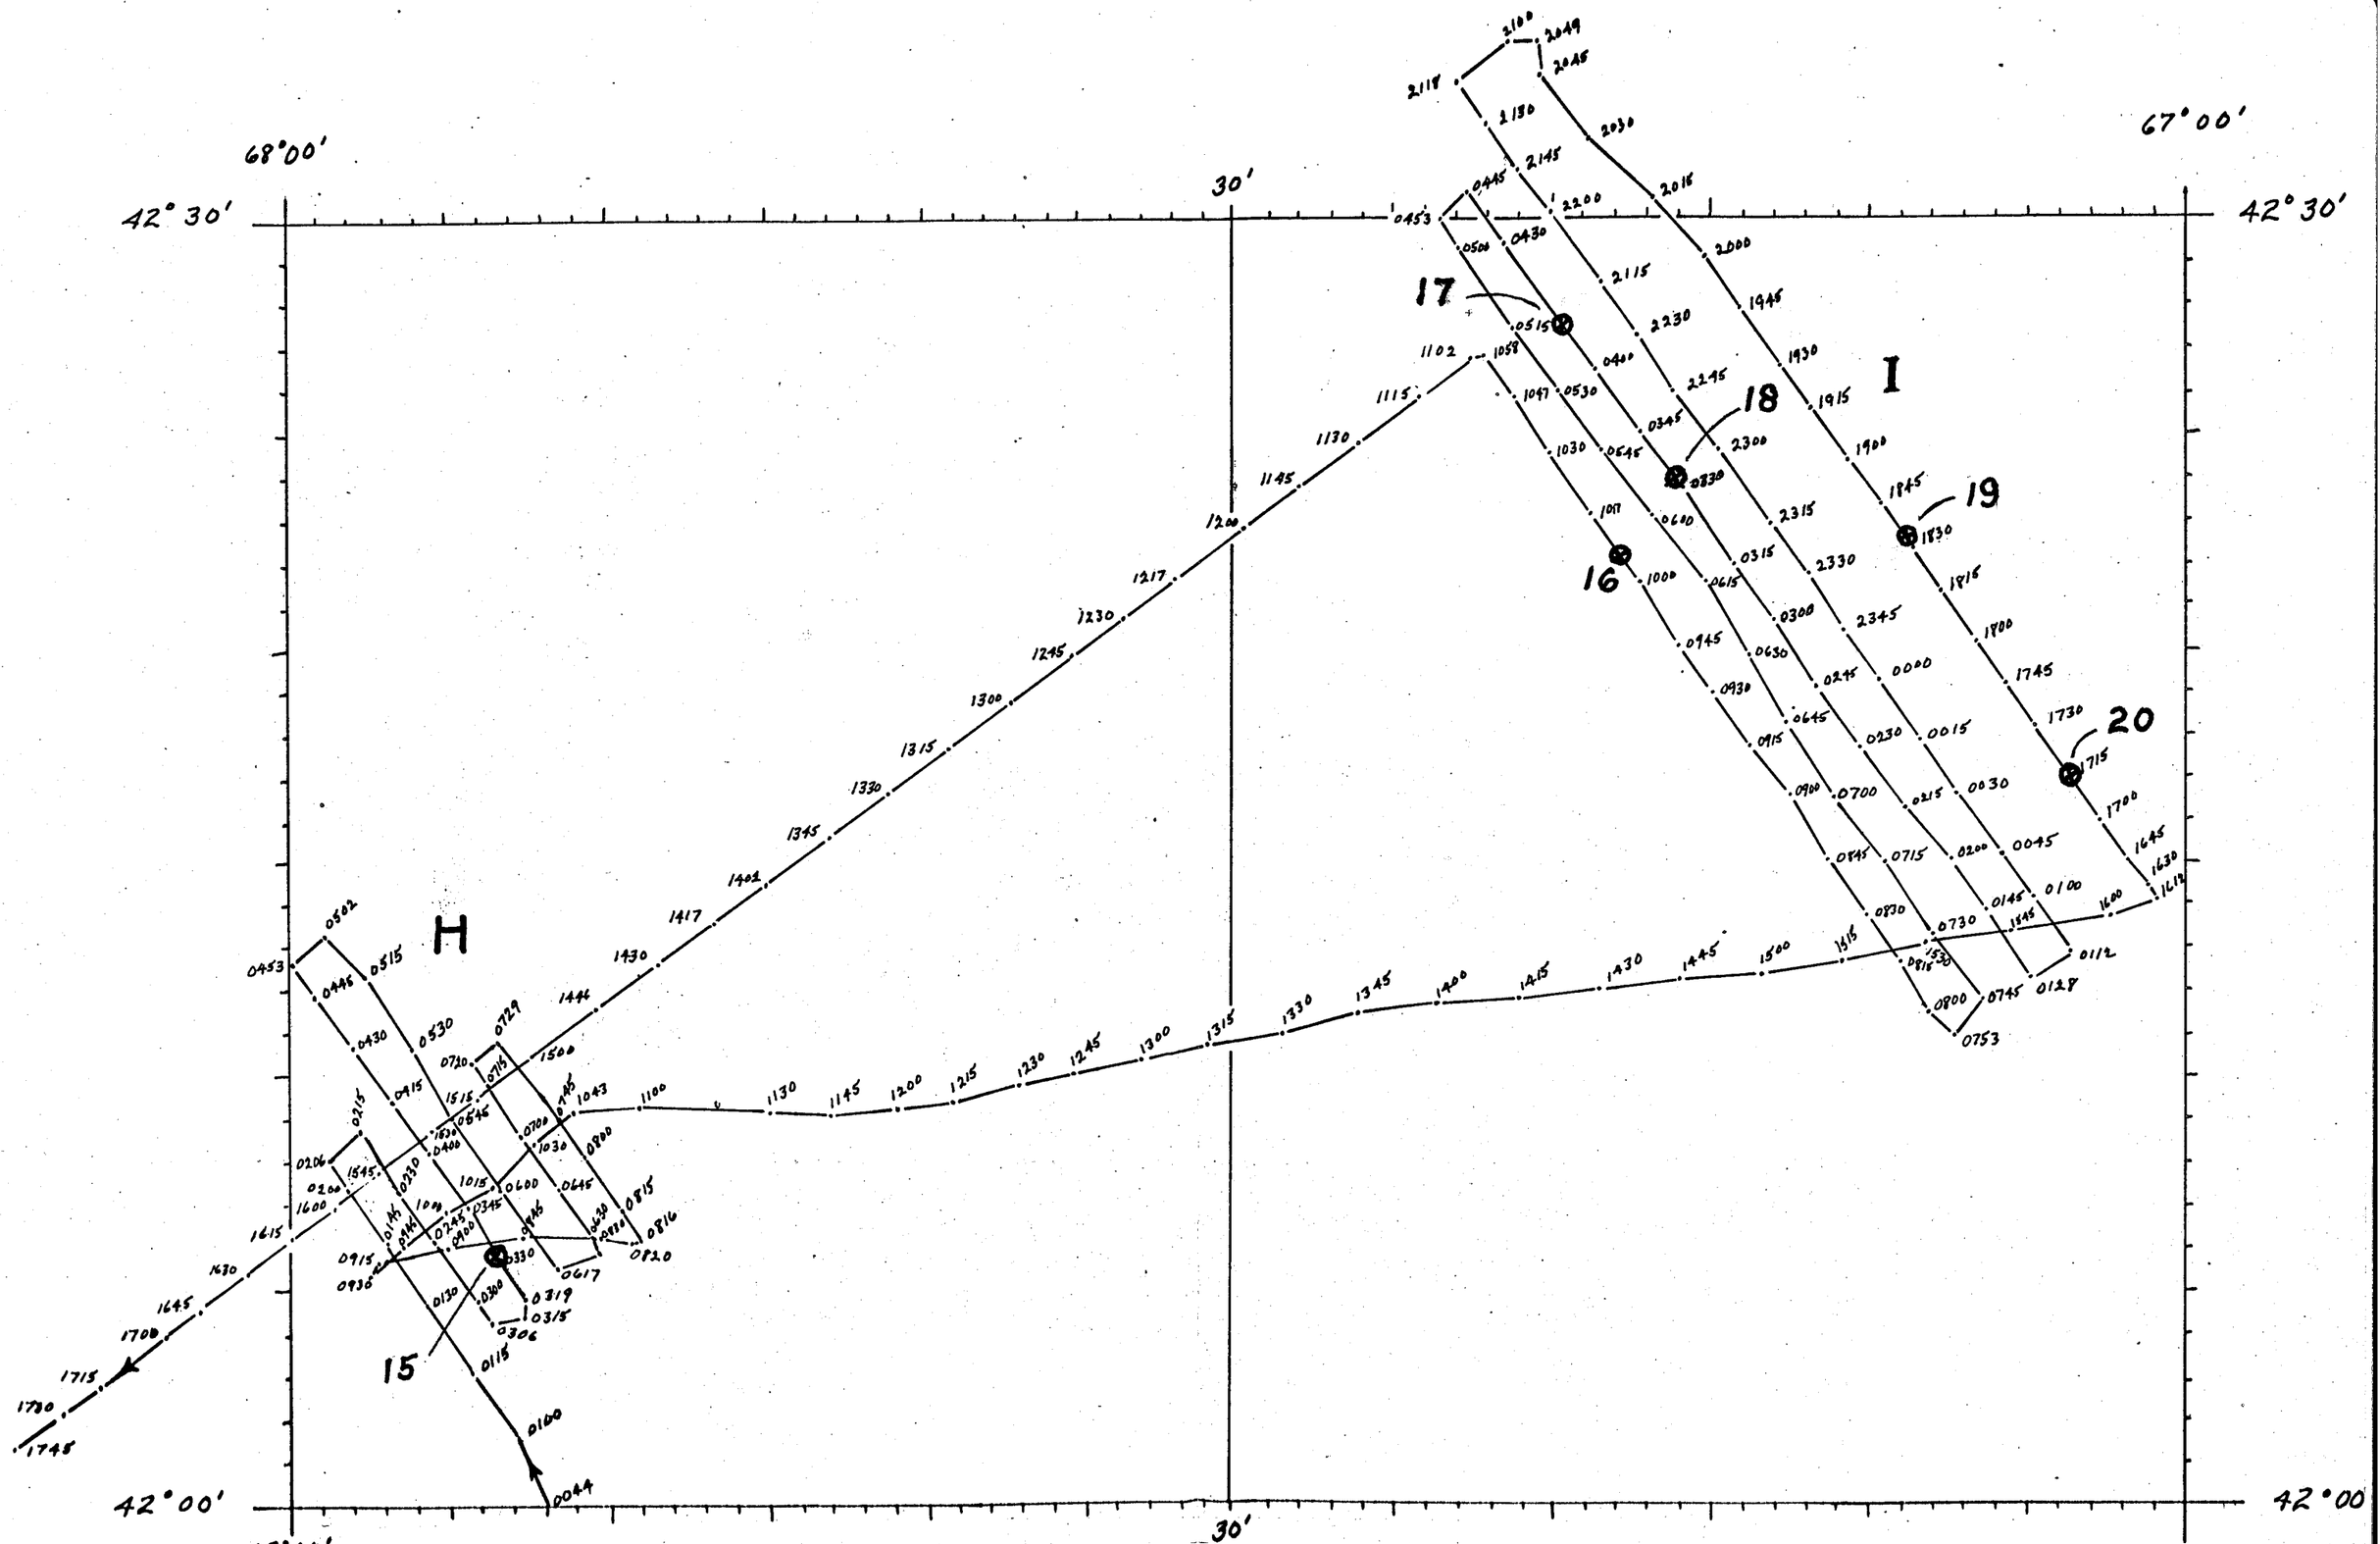

Figure 8.--Map showing track for Cruise III for areas H and I, and proposed drilling sites 15-20.

See figure 6 for general location.