
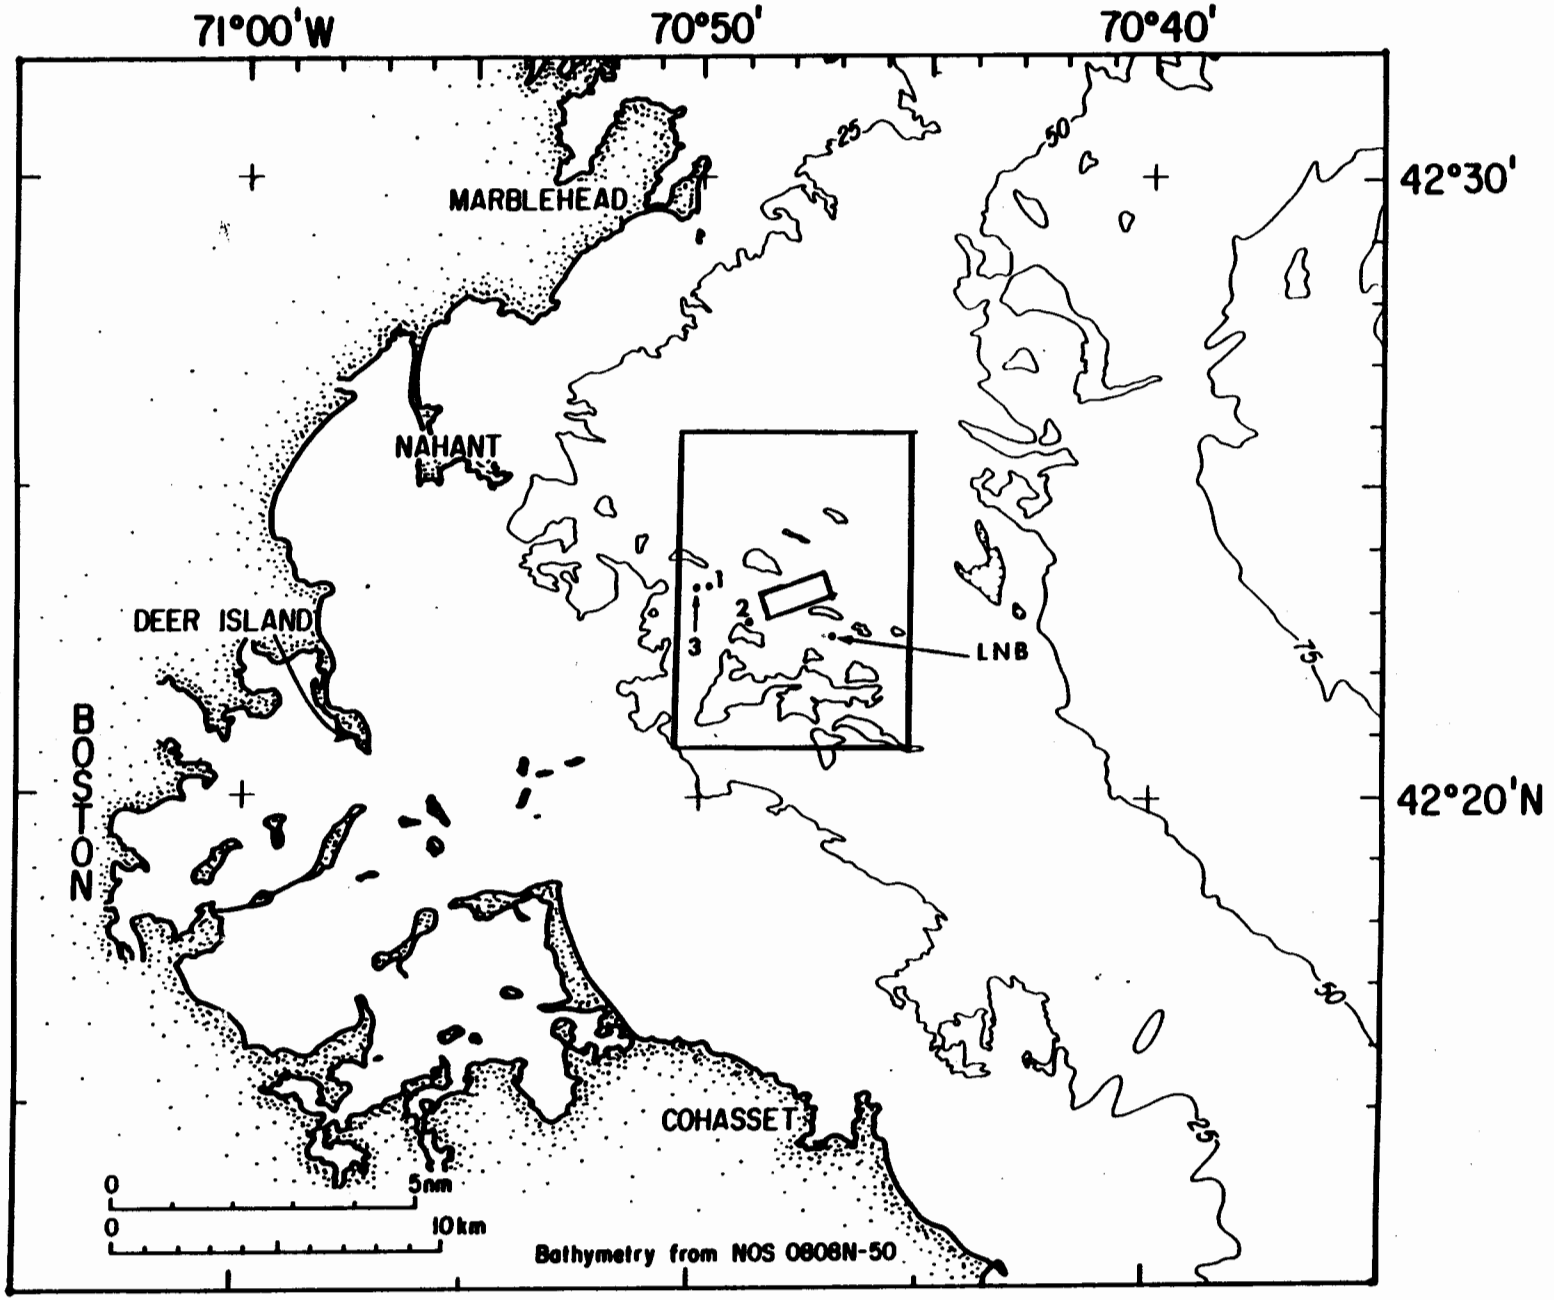

Figure 1. Larger box outlines area of sidescan sonar survey conducted by USGS in April 1989. Smaller rectangle is the proposed site for Boston's outfall diffuser. USGS moorings are located adjacent to the Large Navigation Buoy (LNB) at the approach to Boston Harbor. Sediment sampling locations are indicated by numbers 1 - 3.